PECTORAL SYRUP.

CURES CONSUMPTION, CURES BRONCHITIS,

CURES COLDS, CURES ASTHMA,

CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

I INVITE ATTENTION to some of the most extraordinary cures by my

PECTORAL SYRUP.

They are at home and any one who has doubts can inquire of the persons who have been cured by it.

Dr. KEYSER IS PREPARED AT ANY TIME TO EXAMINE LUNGS, WITHOUT CHARGE, FOR ALL THOSE WHO NEED HIS MEDICINE.

ATTEND TO YOUR COLDS.—A case of five years standing cured by

DR. KEYSER'S

PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 11th, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which for several years back had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your Pectoral Cough Syrup. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18th, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicine in general, it affords me great pleasure to recommend your Pectoral Syrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be affected with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a cold.

I have been more or less, in my life affected with the severest colds of hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best medicine I ever found, purporting to cure the above; nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier, Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, O., March 14th, 1859.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. IT KNOCKED THE NOISE OUT OF MY COUGH, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with; I have not used more than one half of the bottle, and can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy.—You are at liberty to use my name in this regard, as you think proper. E. F. PRATT,
Messenger, Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURG, May 11th, 1859.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

E. F. P.

READ THE TRUTH—DR. KEYSER: I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robison street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURG, December 31st, 1853.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county.—I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months, I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your PECTORAL SYRUP, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had dispaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE, Peebles township.
Witness—B. M. KERR.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14th, 1857.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago, an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life. JOHN M'GINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable "Pectoral Syrup." Almost everybody around us has the cold and are inquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., tell us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

J. S. WATTERSON & SON'S.

January 30th, 1860.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I have been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely. Signed,

J. W. SIMONTON,
236 Liberty St., Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 9th, 1860.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?"—"Go to Keyser's on Wood street and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears almost every day in cold catching seasons of the year. As we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral" in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburg with one of the most distressing contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we have ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact it seemed rather to improve by practice and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this state of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the Pectoral, took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered after a brief but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14th, 1859.

HOOPS VS. BOOTS.

An unfeeling and ungallant 'wretch' in Yreka, having been forced off the side-walk into foot deep mud, by the exceeding amplitude of a fashionably dressed lady's crinoline, sends to the The Northern Journal the following 'shorts,' for which, as the editor remarks, he should be hooped up in a nail keg and talked to death by ugly cross old maids:

Beautiful creature!
You sail along the street like
A Missouri wood boat with a
Fifteen foot mast. You're a hand
Some gal, and look amazing
Well when you're fixed up. You
No doubt think you're some, and
You are. But in that season of
The year when the aqueous fluid
Is compound with terra firma
To the consistency of paste, you're
Death on fellows who wear pol
Ished boots. You are said to be a Daughter of Eve, but you don't look any
More like your Mother's picture
Than a flour barrel does like Shasta
Butter. If she had dressed like you, fig
Leaves would have run out before
She got her hoops covered, and A dam, like some husbands now
A days, went naked. When you go A
Long the side walk you make fellers git
Off in the mud—upset dry goods
Boxes, and maebe tear your dress
And raise thunder generally.
O you're a high old gal superficially
Considered, and briars, and nails, and
Pins can't scratch you, and boys can't
Kiss you, and calumny can't hurt
You, because nothing can get to you.
May you ever be encircled by the im
Pregnable hoop of virtue, guarded by Friends, have lots of lovers, and by
And by get married, but darn your Infernal big hoop! Just look at my
Boots, you wike spreading
Superfluity.

THE DUTCHMAN'S EXPERIENCE.

"Mine neighbor Wilhelm, vot you dinks of bolitics, hey?" asked Peter von Sin of his neighbor, Von Sweitzel, the Twelfth Ward blacksmith, one evening, as he seated himself in the "Bierhaus."

"I dink much," said Sweitzel, giving his pipe a long whiff.

"Vell, vot you dinks?"

"I comes to der conclusion that bolitics is one big fool."

"Ah!" said Pete, after taking a draught from his mug, "how you make him dat?"

"Very well, mine fren, I tell you," replied Sweitzel, after a few whiffs. "I came to dis place ten years last evening, by der Dutch almanac, mit mine blacksmit shop. I build fine little houses I puts up mine bellers, I makes mine fire, I heats mine iron, I strikes mit mine hammer. I gets blenty work, aud makes monish."

"Dat ish goot," remarked Pete.

"I say dat I make much friends," continued Wilhelm, relighting his pipe.—"Der peoples all say, Von Sweitzel bees a goot man; he blows in der morning, he strikes at night, and he minds his bisness. So dey spraken to me many times, and it mades me feel much good here," slapping his breast.

"Yaw, yaw, dat ish gooter," remarked Pete, who was an attentive listener.

"Vell, it goes long das way dree year. Dree? Let me see—von year I makes dree hundred dollar; der next year dree hundred and fifty; der next four hundred and swonzey, and der next five hundred dollar. Dat make four year; when old Mike, the watchman, who beese such a bad man, comes to me and say, 'Sweitzel, vot makes you work so hard?"

"'To make monish,' I tell him.

"'I tells you how to make monish quicker as dat,' he says.

"I ask him how, and den he tell me to go into bolities, an' git big office. I laugh at him, ven he tells me dat Shake, the lawyer, vat makes such burty speeches about Farderland, bees agoing to run for Congress, and as Shake, the lawyer, tells him to tell me, dat if I would go among de peeples, and tell dem to vote mit him all der vile, he would put me in von big office where I make twenty thousand dollar a year."

"Twenty thousand!" exclaimed Pete, thunderstruck.

"Yaw, twenty thousand. Vell, I thinks I must stop der strikin, and go to mine frents, and all de Garmans vote for Shake, and Shake bees elected for Congress."

Here Von Sweitzel stopped, and fixing his eye on the floor, puffed his pipe as if in deep thought.

"Vell, mine neighbor," said Pete, after waiting a due length of time for him to resume, "vot you do den, eh?"

"Vell, I ask Mike, der swell-head watchman, for der office, an he tells me I get him der next year. I wait until der krout makin' time, and den I say again—

"'Mike, ven vill Shake give me dat twenty thousand dollar office?'

"'In two years, shure,' he says, 'if you work for der party.'

"Vell, I stop blowing mine bellers agin' and I blow two years for der party mit mine mouth."

"Two years mit your mouth?" asked Peter, in astonishment.

"Yaw, two year. Den again I go to Mike, der swell-head watchman, and tell him der twenty thousand dollar about an' he tells me in von more year I get him sure. I dinks he fool me, yet I blow for de party anudder year, and den vat you dinks?"

"Dinks! vy, you gets him twenty thousand dollar."

"Gits him! by shinks! Mike, de swell-head watchman, tells me I bees von big fool, and dat I might go to der bad place, and eat sourkrout."

"He tells you dat?"

"Yaw; sure as my name bees Von Sweitzel."

"And you do der blowin mit your mouth for der party?"

"Yaw!"

"Vat you do den, neighbor?"

"I makes a fire in my placksmit shop, I blows my own bellers again, I heat mine own iron, and strikes mit mine own hammer. I says for myself, 'Wilhelm Von Sweitzel, do your own blowing' and let politicians do theirs."

FANCY DANCING.

The Lacrosse Democrat cautions young men who can't dance the fancy dances not to go to a ball with a young lady who can, and adds a few suggestions as follows:—

"If we have children, we shall teach them these facy dances, to the neglect of their catechism. Not that they will enjoy the hopping around, first on one foot, and then on the other, then on both, but they will have such a good chance to hug other folks' wives and sweethearts! That is the secret of the dancing! No one can object then, but if a fellow were to sit by the side of his own wife even in a ball room and hug her half as hard, well, wouldn't there be remarks? Guess not! (We speak ironically!) Talk about going to picnics, visiting weddings, going to applecuts, sparking by moonlight, sitting on the porch Sunday evenings, and stealing a kiss every time a star shoots, (that's the nicest game! sleighriding by the side of a red checked girl, or eating happiness with a gold spoon—all—all these sink into insignificance when fancy dancing comes on. But then! If a fellow don't know how, and takes to a party a pretty girl what does; and if he has to sit on a cold bench and see another fellow doing the sweet huggings of that angelic creature that he paid his ticket money for, it's awful! Just to sit still and see another's arm where yours should be—head where it should not be, and—and—well, don't take a girl to a fancy dancing party unless you know all the ropes!"

SPEED OF BOYS' SLEDS.—A friend informs us that being in Middletown a day or two since, he timed the speed of the boys' sleds there, where coasting has been a very popular amusement. It was on Court street, and the inclination pretty steep all the way to the river. He found that the sleds went half a mile in eighteen seconds, or nearly two miles a minute? This is double the speed of the swiftest express train. It is a sport not unattended with danger, especially when the sleds come down across traveled roads or city streets. Witness, the fatal accident in Farmington the other day. In Middletown, the boys would tie a string of sleds together, railroad-car fashion, and one of these trains, in crossing a road, came against a two-horse team and threw both horses down, the sleds passing under the horses in safety.—Hartford Times, Jan. 30th.

☞ Mrs. Partingdon says she has noticed that whether flour was dear or cheap, she had invariably to pay the same money for half a dollar's worth.

THE GAME OF LIFE.—In youth, hearts are trumps; in manhood, diamonds and clubs, but at the close of life spades are sure to win.

☞ We should never seek for revenge when our onemy is powerful, for then would it be imprudent; not when he is weak, for then it would be mean and cruel.

THE GREAT IRON WAR STEAMER.

The London Engineer gives the following interesting acerunt of the process by which the iron plates for the new English war-steamer are constructed: The tests which were applied to the plates furnished by the builders of the Warrior were of the most trying character. Some plates were fired at with 68-pounders, at 200 yards range, and were literally cut in halves by balls, fired one after another, on a line drawn on the surface, each ball striking immediately below its predecessor. Upon some other plates the balls made a circular indentation upon the surface nearly as deep as the plates, exactly of the form of the projectile, as though a mold had been taken of it in some soft and yielding substance. It was only after repeated trials that it was decided that the plates should be of annealed scrap iron.—The labor involved in building up these plates is enormous. In the first instance, small scraps of iron are thrown into the fires, and, when in a state of red heat, are subjected to severe hammering, under the steam hammer, until the whole is beaten and amalgated into a solid mass of about half a tun weight. This lump is then placed on the top of a similar mass, the whole made red hot, and hammered and welded together. Repeated additions of this kind are made until about five tuns of metal are thus welded together in one huge, shapeless body. This is then brought to a glowing white heat, and placed under the huge hammer, the thundering blows of which gradually reduce it into shape. Again and again the enormous slab is put into the furnace and hammered into one piece, 13 feet long, 3 feet wide, and 4½ inches thick. From ten to a dozen men are engaged in the work of moving these ponderous masses of iron, which are moved about apparently with the most perfect ease. Powerful cranes swing the molten mass from the furnaces to the hammer; a nicely adjusted balance is provided by a massive iron lever, one end of which is welded into and forms part of the metal, and this is provided with a dozen or more of horns or handles, by which the iron can be turned in any direction; for the plates are not only hammered on the broad surface, but at the sides and at the top and bottom. The plates, after having been roughly formed into shape, are completely planed and squared. Planing machines of enormous size hug these plates in their resistless arms, and bear them slowly and silently under the sharp-cutting edges of the tools, and thin shavings of the metal, which, as they are cut off, coil up in long, bright ringlets of iron, attest the tremendous power of these noiseless and all but omnipotent machines. When the edges and surfaces are made perfectly smooth, like the finest work of the cabinet-maker, the plates are plated on an end, gripped firmly by a mortizing machice, and as they travel slowly backward and forward in the framework against a small tongue of steel, a groove of about one inch in width and depth is formed, into which the corresponding projections formed on the side of another plate will fit with the most perfect accuracy, the plates all being made to dovetail on each of the four sides.

AN AFFECTING STORY.—The following account of a heart-rending circumstance we extract from an exchange:—

We once saw a young man in 10ne gazing at the *ry heavens, with a † in 1 ☞ and a ~~ of pistols in the other.—We endeavored to attract his at10tion by ing 2 a ¶ in a paper we held in our ☞, relating to a young in that § of the country who left home in a st8 of derangement. ☞ There are people in this world quite as much given to slander as a dog is to barking. The following is an example:—

"Perfumery is an article that indolent young ladies and gentlemen make use of to supply the place of clean water, soap, and a fine toothed comb."

☞ A young lady remarked the other day that she would like to do something so as to have her name appear in the paper. We advise her to get some one to put his name in with hers.

☞ At a meeting of the stockholders of the Ebensburg and Cresson Railroad, held on the 17th ult., the following gentlemen were elected President and Directors of the Company: President, Thomas Collins; Directors, A. ☞ The Student and Schoolmate, published by Galon James & Co., 15 Cornhill street, Boston, is one of the best periodicals of the kind published in the country and just the monthly visitor which should be in the hands of every scholar in the land. A Noble Reply.—A short time since, while Mr. Etheridge of Tenn., a South American, was making a speech in Congress in favor of the Crittenden resolutions, he was interrupted by Mr. Leake of Va., who asked him whether he was speaking on the side of the South or of the North, whereupon Mr. Etheridge replied:—"I am speakingon that side which has few representatives on the floor—I am speaking on the side of my country."

Tribune Almanac.—We have received the Tribune Almanac, published by the New York Tribune Association This is one of the most valuable political registers published, but not a party publication. It contains a great amount of statisitcal information and accurate returns of the elections in every State in the Union in 1860. Price 12½ cents per copy. Every man who wishes to be posted in reference to political matters, should possess himself of a copy.

☞ We learn from the Juniata Sentinel, that on Friday week a little daughter of Jacob Homer, residing near Mifflintown, was burned to death, through the carelessness of some older children who were playing with a lighted stick and let a coal fall into the cradle in which the child was lying. While the grand-father of the child was attending the funeral, some scamp or scamps entered his house and stole $320 in gold. The perpetrators of the robbery have not yet been detected.

☞ Brice X. Blair, member of the State Legislature, was put on trial at Huntingdon, at last court, charged with having conspired with others to abduct a young lady named Maggie Scott, a young and handsome girl who resided with her father, near the residence of Mr. B., in Huntingdon county. The jury, after a patient and lengthy investigation of the entire affair, brought in a verdict of not guilty, but directed the defendant to foot the costs. The accused is yet to be tried, at the April term, for abduction, and an attempt to procure abortion. An unpleasant position, truly, for a Legislator.

Military Resources of Pennsylvania.—From the Adjutant General's Report we learn that the military force of this State is about three hundred and fifty thousand, of which nineteen thousand are uniformed volunteers.—The arms of the State are all in the possession of the armed volunteer companies, and comprise 22,080 muskets, &c., 4,706 rifles, &c., 2,809 cavalry swords and sabres, 3,447 pistols, &c., 69 pieces of ordinance being six pound bronze cannon. There are only about forty-two hundred of these small arms of the improved pattern, the others are old flint locks, good for nothing now. This is not, at present, a very flattering picture of the efficiency of the militia; if suddenly called upon for service.

☞ The "Farmer and Gardener," as also the "American Bee Journal," for February, are received. The former, in addition to its usual embellishments, contains a finely engraved frontispiece of the celebrated Farmer's Market, of Philadelphia, the finest edifice of its kind in the world. In addition to this it is filled to repletion with the most useful and seasonable reading. The American Bee Journal comes to us with all the promises made in the first number fulfilled. As this is the only journal of its class in the United States, and as it is not only printed in the most unexceptionable manner, but edited with marked ability, it cannot fail to succeed. The publishers, desirous of introducing these two valuable works, offer them both, together with a prepaid copy of a handsome Premium Book, for the trifling sum of One Dollar and Fifty Cents; or, either one of them and a Premium Book for One Dollar. This is certainly cheaper than any other publications of the same size and character in the United States.—☞ Specimen numbers are furnished without charge, by the publishers. A. M. Four or five other cases were continued over till next sessions.

From the South.—The telegraph reports and letter writers from the South repeat the reports of the day previous, with additional surmises and rumors, but give us very little that is really reliable. From what we can glean from the reports we believe that Fort Sumter has, or will shortly be attacked, and a report is current here to-day (Wednesday) that a scrimmage has taken place at Fort Pickens, Fla., occasioned by the attempt to land troops from the steamer Brooklyn now lying at Pensacola harbor. These are only rumors on which no reliance can be placed.

Hurra for Virginia!—The latest returns from Virginia indicate that the Unionists have carried two-thirds of the delegates to the Convention soon to be held for the purpose of considering the question of secession.

Coercion of St. Louis—The Mississippi to be Turned Away From it.—An Illinois correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat threatens dire vengeance on that city in case she should take sides with the Secessionists. In that event, he says:

"This Southern gate of commerce is all that will be left her thus shorn of her splendors, and even this will be at the mercy of the State of Illinois, and can be destroyed without an act of hostility of which she can have no right to complain. The Mississippi river can be made to run away from St. Louis and under the Illinois bluffs, leaving your city high and dry, seven or eight miles from the river, with a foreign soil lying between the city and the river from the present site of Illinoistown to what will then be the west bank of the Mississippi river. The people of St. Louis know very well this can be done. They have spent many millions of dollars to prevent it from doing itself, and have been alloged by the Legislature of Illinois to build dykes and revest the shores on the Illinois side for this purpose. But it cannot be expected that Illinois will be thus courteous and complaisant to a foreign State, as she has been to her sister State of Missouri under the glorious stars and stripes. It is well known that directly opposite to the mouth of the Missouri river its current presses the sluggish Mississippi against the Illinois shore, and an artificial channel at that point would conduct the united volume of the two streams into the lakes which lie at the foot of the bluffs, and which are supposed by many to have been the of the ancient bed of the stream, and this would take the river away from St. Louis, and throw it within the jurisdiction of Illinois, until at the foot of the lakes, near Carondelet, it would again re-enter its present bed or channel. This can be done; it has been done at many points on the Lower Mississippi, by running a ditch across a bend of the river, and the force of the current itself has done the rest. Will it be done? If Missouri goes out of the Union, it will be a matter of some pride, to say nothing of the profit of the thing, with the people of Illinois to establish a rival city here in Alton.

Warning from Georgia.—A Southerner writes from an important point in the interior of Georgia to his correspondent in New York: A formal withdrawal of Georgia from the Union has taken place, but she will hold herself ready to step back at any time. So will Alabama.—There will be no serious trouble; only in words. Would to God the whole difficulty were in the hands of the people instead of demagogues; in twenty-four hours we would be right. Don't give up the ship. This confirms other reports which have reached us from the South, going to show that the masses of the people do not sympathize with the violence of the secessionist leaders. There is a strong body of conservatives even in the seceding States, but just now their voice is stifled.

Short Lived Honeymoon.—A Miss White, of McKean who was married to a gentleman from Mississippi, a few weeks ago, and accompanied her husband to that State, which she intended making her future residence, returned to this city, on Tuesday afternoon, having been ordered to leave the Southern domain, at a certain date, before the expiration of ten hours. It seems that she made too free use of her northern sentiments to suit the Southern chivalry, and hence was ordered out of the country. If this is not anarchy and oppression we would like to know in what country it can be found. What was done with the husband we do not learn.—Erie Despatch.

Rapidity of Great Events.—The New York Times says, during the French revolution the first thing every Parisian did on waking up in the morning was to feel if his head was still on his shoulders. Our people, it adds, before they are dressed, send for the morning newspaper to see if the Union has been dissolved over night.

Well may the invalid value this remedy.

☞ The closing years of life are often rendered wretched by ailments which are trifling in themselves and easily cured if taken in time. Affection of the liver, stomach, and other organs concerned in digestion, are the most frequent. They naturally make the sufferer nervous, irritable and complaining, and relatives and friends are forced to bear the brunt of their ill-humor. The use of Hostetters Celebrated Stomach Bitters will prove an efficient remedy for this evil. It will not only strengthen the whole physical organization, but entirely cure the most obstinate cases of Indigestion, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, and Liver Complaint. The first physicians in the country are loud in their praise of this preparation. Another recommendation of the Bitters is that it is so palatable to the taste that it may be used even as a beverage.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schnedam Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature of the certificate.—The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Read the following from the New York Courier:

Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where a physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouses, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases.—Vintages of 1820 to 1848; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps per year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Amalgamation of Languages.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being unusually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

Budget.—Missus wants you to send her a box o' Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills.—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be all the knowing what it is. We see she's nigh deaf and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaive her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation of Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentury, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Peleria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that this disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, I wish you would send more as that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

Twenty Millions of Dollars Saved.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

Fact Worth Knowing.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

Great Discovery.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purpose you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

ROHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.

A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Operations, by Martin M. Rohrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

This work contains 234 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.

Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract, multiply and divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.

The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all other Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works is in the hands of the teacher in the school room—it facilitates time and insures correctness.

THE WORK TREATS OF THE

Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of stone and stone work, of grain and grain bins, of coal and coal bins, of wood, of solids, of liquids, of circular, square or irregular vessels, of cisterns and vats, of roofing, of plasterer's, painter's, glazier's, paver's, plumber's, paper hanger's and upholsterers' work. It treats of currency and of foreign and domestic exchange, of the decimal system, of reduction and its extended application to business, of simple and compound interest, and their entire application to business transactions, with the laws and usages governing and regulating the same, together with numerous commercial forms—of legal tender, of partial payment on notes, of banking and bank discount, of equation of payment and of partnership accounts, of assessment of taxes, of weights and measures, of square and cubic measure, of the square root and its application to business of surfaces, of excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.

IT IS JUST THE BOOK FOR THE

Farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the artizan, or the professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the lawyer, the justice of the peace, the conveyancer, and real estate broker, to the assessor, the banker, the clerk, to the civil engineer and the surveyor, to the carpenter and bricklayer, to the stonemason and the plasterer, to the paper hanger and upholsterer, to the paver and the tiler, &c., &c.; each and all will find it adapted to their various wants better than any book published.

By order of the Committee.

CITIZENS MEETING.—Pursuant to previous notice, a meeting of the citizens of Altoona, irrespective of party, was held in Lowther's Hall, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 5th, for the purpose of placing in nomination a ticket to be supported at the coming Borough election.

The committee having retired to attend to the duty assigned it, on motion, S. M. Woodkok, Esq., who was present, was called upon to address the meeting, on the subject of the Union. He responded in a speech which was listened to with attention.

WORKING MEN'S UNION TICKET.—The following list of candidates nominated at a meeting held at Shultz's Hall, some time since, have been handed us:—

Chief Burgess—David T. Caldwell.
School Directors, 3 years—C. C. Mason, G. W. Sparks.
" " 2 " —Jacob Wigner.
" " 1 " —James Lowther.
Town Council—N. J. Mervine, D. J. Traves.

" " N. W.—John Condo.
" " W. W.—J. K. Bellman.

The following resolutions were adopted at the same meeting:

Resolved, That the ticket placed in nomination be and the same is hereby styled the Working Men's Union Ticket.

Resolved, That we will give to the ticket so nominated our hearty and cordial support.

Resolved, That we endorse the resolutions offered in the Senate of the U. S. by Senator Crittenden, with Bigler's amendments, believing them to be the only true basis of compromise as yet offered, to restore peace and harmony between the border States North and South.

Resolved, That we denounce the course of those members of Congress, without respect to party, who refuse to lend their aid in support of any measure which would have a tendency to heal up the distracted condition of this glorious Union.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.—Thursday next is St. Valentine's Day, and already we notice Valentine's of different kinds for sale in this place.—Some of them are those miserable, detestable comic concerns, the publication of which should be suppressed as a nuisance. We hope that those of our citizens who desire to send missives of this kind, will rise above the mean principle which would dictate the sending of such vulgar characters to either friends or foes for the purpose of wounding their feelings, and send only those which will give pleasure to the recipient. Certainly there is more pleasure in giving joy than pain. Valentines can be had at Fettinger's.

MECHANICS' SOCIAL PARTY.—Tickets are now out for a social party of the Mechanics' of this place, to be held in Logan Hall, on the evening of the 22nd of February. We hope they may have a fine time.

THE BOROUGH ELECTION.—One Week from to-morrow our citizens will be called upon to select officers for the borough, by whom they are to be governed, to whom they are to apply for redress of grievances, and to whom the weal or woe of home matters are to be entrusted for some time to come. That the men who are to be thus clothed with authority should be the best in our midst, we need not argue. All know how much injury inexperienced and designing men could work, and all know the benefit to be derived, individually and collectively, from the administration of experienced and honest men. Knowing this, we think it becomes the duty of every man in the borough to cast aside all party predilections in the coming election and cast his vote for the men whom he believes to be the best qualified for the offices for which they are named. We have, and ever shall continue to oppose political nominations for borough offices, for the reason that such a course almost invariably fails to secure the best men for officers, and it is no benefit to a party to put unqualified men in office simply because they belong to the party.

An issue which does not exist, is sought to be raised at the coming election, for some purpose, we don't know what, but we think our citizens generally will unite in frowning down any attempt to get up an issue which must, from the nature of it, result in injury, not only to a few individuals pecuniarily, but to all socially. We care not to see the contest a warm one between the rival candidates and their friends—in fact we wish to see it a warm one, as in such cases the best men are successful. We uphold the doctrine that every man has a right to work and vote for whom he pleases, but we denounce the man who wilfully attempts to create a false issue—one which must live after the contest is over and work evil—merely to secure his own or his friend's election to an office which is without emoluments and little honored, (as has been the case with most of the offices in this place for some time past.) Let the motto of every man be "the best man for the office," and we fear not the result.

RESIGNATION.—The following card needs no explanation at our hands, and we have only to say that we regret the declination of Mr. M., as we believe he has made an acceptable officer:—

ALTOONA, Feb. 5th, 1861.

Fellow Citizens of Altoona Borough:—

Situated as I am in business which demands my time and attention, and other matters over which I have no control, admonish me of the necessity of withdrawing, as far as possible, from public affairs.

I therefore hereby tender my resignation as Chief Burgess of the Borough, to take effect immediately after the next election.

Hoping that you may select a successor at the next election, more acceptable, and more competent to discharge the onerous duties appertaining to the office,

I remain your humble servant,
WM. C. MCCORMICK.

AMUSING STREET SCENES.—The slippery pavements, on Saturday morning last, were productive of some very amusing scenes in the way of ground and lofty tumbling, and, while we do not wish to be considered sacreligious, we can not help saying that the saints who attended market on that morning found themselves on equally slipping places with sinners. Many persons sat down suddenly, without invitation or inclination, although the seats were free that morning. We noticed a number, whom we thought had long since given up childish sports, taking short rides on the seats of their corderoys, much to the detriment of the latter. So far as we have learned, no person was seriously injured, although there were a number of collisions and breakdowns.

FROSTED FEET.—It is said that frozen feet can be speedily and certainly cured by being bathed and well rubbed with kerosene or coal oil, for a few times at night before retiring to bed. Several persons have already tried it, all of whom unite in pronouncing it an effectual cure, which, if they are correct, is an easy and cheap mode of getting rid of a very sore and troublesome affliction. Those who have tried it inform us that the feet should be well warmed by a hot stove during and after the application of the oil, and it will certainly effect a speedy cure. Persons suffering from the pain of frosted feet, will, no doubt, do well in giving it a trial, for it is surely a very cheap ointment, and one which is very easily applied.—Pitts. Chronicle.

☞ Capt. Smith, of the Echo, accepts our offer of the Revolutionary bayonet, and desires it forwarded by a special train, if not inconvenient. That mode of conveyance will be rather inconvenient, Captain, in consequence of the fact that all the cars and locomotives of the P. R. R. are now required to transport the cotton of the Southern States which is now shipped around this way because of the troubles in the harbors of Southern States. Are the secessionists not being whipped with their own rod, Captain? We will forward you the bayonet by the hands of a brother soldier of the Mexican war, which will be equally as honorable a mode of conveyance as a special train.

☞ Within the last three months, over 18,000 bales of cotton have been shipped to the manufacturies in the East, and to Europe, over the Penn'a Railroad, and we learn from the Pittsburgh papers that some 3,000 bales are now on boats coming up the river, besides a great quantity in store at Memphis, Louisville and other shipping points waiting for boats, all of which will be sent East over the Penn'a R. R. Certainly "it is an ill wind that blows nobody good." The shipment of cotton by this route is in consequence of the blockading of Southern harbors by the secessionists. If they can stand the turn affairs have taken, certainly the north can.

☞ The Johnstown Tribune says:—By the action of the Allegheny Annual Conference of the United Brethren denomination, which met in Greensburg on the 3rd ult., Rev. E. B. Kephart, who ministered to the Brethren congregation in this place during the past year, has been transferred to Altoona, Blair county. He is succeeded by Rev. M. Spangler, who preached his first sermon in this place on Sunday last.—Rev. D. Speck, formerly of Johnstown, we notice, remains in charge of the Greensburg and Mt. Pleasant congregations.

A CARD.—As there are a number of different reports in circulation in reference to the fate or destiny of Mr. David Bolger, who suddenly left his home, in Martinsburg, Blair co., Pa., on the night of the 7th of November last, it is deemed proper, on the part of his friends, to publish the following card:

The disappearance of Mr. Bolger is still a matter of profound mystery. The family have, as yet, no positive or reliable information as to his fate or destiny. Mr. Bolger is a man 50 years of age, some six feet in stature, of spare features, prominent forehead, straight dark hair, mixed with gray, and a little thin on the top, and when he left his home was dressed in dark clothes, low shoes, and a dark straw hat. In point of morality, Mr. Bolger stood high in the community in which he lived, and his habits of industry were very exemplary. His business profession is that of a carpenter. He also had cultivated a high taste for Church music. Any information in reference to this man, his fate or locality, will be thankfully received by the undersigned, or by any of the citizens of Martinsburg, Blair Co., Pa. Respectfully signed.

Jan. 26, '61. J. HASSLER.

IMPORTANT TO FIREMEN.—The following bill was read in the lower branch of the Legislature last week and referred to the appropriate committee. The bill is a meritorious and just one, and should be passed without a dissenting voice:—

AN ACT relative to Fire Companies of this Commonwealth.

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act, the officers and members of all regularly organized fire companies in this Commonwealth, or those hereafter to be organized, be and they are hereby exempted from the performance of military duty, and the penalties imposed for non-performance thereof, unless in actual war.

SUDDEN AND UNEXPECTED DEATH.—Mr. Joseph Cunningham, a young student at Law in the office of Scott, Brown & Corbin, died on Monday last from having swallowed a part of the "wish bone" of a chicken at the Warm Springs, on the Monday evening previous. He complained from the moment he got it into his throat, but the Doctors would not believe it, until he coughed it up on Sunday. Inflamation of the throat took place, and finally mortification, and on Monday morning he breathed his last. The Doctors say he had every symptom of pneumonia. He was kind, generous and was universally esteemed by those who knew him. —Hunt. Globe.

GOOD BYE.—Some time since the True Press, of Pittsburgh, was discontinued, and the Evening Gazette published in its stead. The publishers of the True Press were courteous gentlemen and gave us a daily exchange. After it fell into the hands of the present proprietors, and the name was changed, we were stricken from the exchange list very discourteously.—We have not lost much, however, as we still receive the daily visits of a live paper from that city—the Chronicle. Good bye, Mr. Gazette, if you lose no more than we do by the "cutting," you are happy still.

MORE MUNITIONS OF WAR.—Almost every day we notice cannon of the largest size, and any quantity of shot, shell, &c, going east, over the Penn'a R. R., from the manufactory at Lawrenceville, near Pittsburgh. These guns are intended for forts in the east, where they are being mounted as rapidly as possible. While we can not bring ourselves to believe that we are about to be plunged into a civil war, yet these things look considerably like it, and make us feel uneasy.

☞ The "Local" of the Phœnixville Phœnix was visited by a couple of pretty girls, a few days since, and judging from the style in which he "goes off" about it in his last issue, such visits must be like angels' in his locality. If he were up here he would have plenty of such visitors, as we have, that is, if he is good looking. Now won't somebody run and tell our wives.

HANDSOME PICTURES.—If any of our citizens desire to view handsome Ambrotypes and Photographs, or secure a good likeness of themselves, all that is necessary, is to call at the rooms of Messrs. Vallade & Stewart, in Fisgart's Building, on Virginia street. Mr. Vallade is one of the best portrait painters in the country, as his work will abundantly testify.—Call and see them soon.

RUN OFF.—On Monday last, the horses attached to Messrs. Wilhelm & Brothers lager beer wagon, took fright on the hill near the Methodist church, and dashed down Julia street at full speed, making such a racket as to cause some people to think that the last day had come. They were checked up at the Altoona House, having fortunately done little or no damage.

DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—The Juniata Register, of a recent date, pays a decided compliment to Samuel D. Young, Esq., Supt. of Eastern Division, Penn'a R. R. It is only necessary to become acquainted with Mr. Young to find out his social qualities and his fitness for the position he occupies. He makes friends of all his acquaintances.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—An article having appeared in your last issue, stating that Mountain Commandery would go to Harrisburg on the 22d, provided an invitation was extended to them, allow me to state that Mountain Commandery does not court any invitation from any one, or under any circumstances. The mistake occurred in this way: Some of the members of that body having heard that it was in contemplation by the committee of arrangements to extend an invitation to our Order; the remark was made that Mountain Commandery would probably go, if a formal invitation was given.

That invitation has since been given, and the question of accepting it must be decided by the Commandery itself. As American citizens, we are deeply sensible of the dark cloud that now hovers over our beloved country; and we are anxious to do all in our power to avert the impending calamity, we are willing to go to Harrisburg, to Washington, or any where else under the broad canopy of Heaven, if by so doing we can add one iota towards restoring peace and harmony to our country. As Masons, whose professed principles are equality and brotherly love, we can well appreciate the power of the great truth, that in union there is strength, and false and recreant to his obligations, must he be who would not stand forth manfully in his country's cause. Look back to the dark and stormy days of the Revolution, see Washington, Warren, Montgomery, and a host of others, who were they? good men and true patriots—Masons.

Mountain Commandary is, in thought, sentiment and action, a unit; and that unity is Union. The dark and portentious clouds of a coming tempest are blackening the whole horizon; the thunder, which at first was low and distant, is growing louder and louder, until we find that it is about to burst upon us with resistless fury, and shall we stand calmly by and not do all in our power to avert the awful doom? Rest assured, sirs, that when this glorious confederacy shall be dissolved, when the stars and stripes, so long flung in triumph to every breeze, and so strongly upheld on every sea, shall be trailed in the dust, when this land, bequeathed to us us by our forefathers, and baptized and hallowed by their blood shall be broken into fragments, it shall only be when Templar Hearts and Templar Hands lie cold and pulseless in the grave.

My motive in addressing you this communication is simply to correct an impression likely to be made by the article alluded to, and in justice to the Commandery over which I have the honor to preside. I remain,

Yours Respectfully,
EDMUND H. TURNER,
Eminent Commander, Mount. Com., No. 10.

[The notice we published last week, in reference to the Commandery, and to which the above is a reply, was furnished by a member of the Commandery in the same words that we inserted it.—EDS.]

LABOR-SAVING WASHING MACHINE.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING purchased the right for Blair county, of

are now manufacturing them at Altoona, and intend to supply them to those persons throughout the county who desire a LABOR-SAVING MACHINE.

This machine is got up on an entirely new principle, and is considered, by those who have seen it in use, the best that has ever been brought before the public.

Among the many advantages of this machine over all others may be mentioned the following:

1st. Its simplicity of construction, making it almost impossible to get out of order.

2d. Its speed, which astonishes alike the operator and the looker on.

3rd. The facility with which it adapts itself to the bulk or quntity of clothes desired to be washed.

4th. It washes equally well the finest and lightest fabric or the coarsest and heaviest, such as bed-quilts, comforts, blankets, &c.

McMINN & DERN,
Altoona, Blair County, Pa.

We the undersigned, hereby certify that we are now using Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine and are fully satisfied that it is a very excellent article of the kind; combining as it does great speed with little labor, and performing its work in the most satisfactory manner. We therefore cheerfully recommend it to all who desire a real labor-saving washing machine.

THE

Worthy of any Confidence

FOR RESTORING

THE BALD AND GRAY.

Many, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway.—Read the following:—

BATH, Me., April 18th, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.: Gents:—The letter I wrote you in 1856 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous inquries touching the facts in the case. The enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thrifty and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if care were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt, been basely imitated and been used not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury.—I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken off this past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful. I gave it to my friends and thereby induced them to try it, many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who enquire of me of my unshaken opinion of its valuable results. I remain, dear sir, Yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

AARONS RUN, Ky., Nov. 20, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world, the wonderful, as well as unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it. Resp'y you s, Rev. S. ALLEN BROCK.

P. S.—This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited, but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert if you wish; if not destroy and say nothing. Yours, &c., Rev S A D.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium hold at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle. O. J WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers. [Dec. 6,

HAIR OILS, COLOGNES, POMades, Shaving Creams, Toilet Soaps, &c. for sale by [1-tf] G. W. KESSLER.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being.

per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINE HAVES NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY. Loss or Appetite. Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness. Ill Temper. Anxiety. Langour, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description.—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds. Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system, all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation could render credible.—Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise, for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for persons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting nap overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly afflicting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating the pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to Salt River Passengers, Ho!

AS THE SUBSCRIBER WILL BE under the necessity of leaving early in November for the head waters of Salt River, in the ship UNION, which will positively sail about that time; and knowing that many of my friends will go along and will want an outfit, I take this opportunity of informing them as well as all my old friends and customers, that I have just returned from the East, where I purchased a large stock of Goods, which I am now opening at my store in North Ward, to which I invite inspection. It is the

as well as the CHEAPEST lot of Goods brought to the town this fall. The reason why I say the CHEAPEST is obvious to every reflecting mind, because as the season advances (the merchants in the east say) prices decline, therefore I have an advantage of from 20 to 25 per cent. over those who purchased early in the season, and I can and will sell cheaper than any other house in the place. Purchasers will thus at once see the propriety of at least examining my stock before buying elsewhere. My stock consists of all the newest styles of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advise of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
